

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, BALTIMORE COUNTY, Baltimore, Maryland,

E Macroeconomics G Financial Economics.

The Department of Economics welcomes applications for a new or senior Assistant Professor level to start in Fall, 2019 in the fields of Macroeconomics, and Financial Economics.

Duties for the tenure-track position entail actively publishing in peer reviewed journals along with teaching courses at both graduate and undergraduate levels in macroeconomics and financial economics. The successful candidate will also display dedication to inclusive excellence in higher education. While teaching will be focused in the Department of Economics, the successful candidate for this position will have opportunities to participate in teaching and dissertation advising in UMBC's School of Public Policy.

The University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) is a mid-sized research university located between Washington and Baltimore with a Carnegie classification of RU/H: Research Universities (high research activity). The Sloan Foundation has awarded our department a grant to establish a pipeline for under-represented minority undergraduates into post-baccalaureate research opportunities. UMBC is especially proud of the diversity of its student body, and we seek to attract an equally diverse applicant pool for this position. We have a strong commitment to inclusive excellence in our faculty. We encourage applications from women, minority group members, veterans, and individuals with disabilities

Completion of Ph.D. is required for appointment as Assistant Professor. Applicants are encouraged to submit their applications by November 15, 2018 for best consideration. Please submit all application materials electronically via interfolio. Required application materials and submission instructions are available at apply.interfolio.com/51834.

For questions contact Crystal Proctor (email: proctor3@umbc.edu).

UMBC is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.